

Name: _____

Anticipation Guide

Before we begin this lesson, you need to think about what you already know and believe about issues related to poverty, success, and wealth. Simply mark Yes or No in the left hand column. After the lesson we will return to this sheet to see if you still agree with your original responses.

LeftRight

| Yes | No | Statement | Yes | No |
|-----|----|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|----|
| | | 1. I just need a few more items to complete my wardrobe. | | |
| | | 2. I need to upgrade my computer a bit. | | |
| | | 3. My cell phone isn't really necessary. | | |
| | | 4. If I had to get by on a $10 a week allowance, I would be fine. | | |
| | | 5. I feel pressure to buy things sometimes. | | |
| | | 6. My parents don't always keep the good food in the house. | | |
| | | 7. I want to get a part-time job for spending money. | | |
| | | 8. I don't have enough room to keep my shoes. | | |
| | | 9. I have purchased things and then never used them and that is ok. | | |
| | | 10. I have spent too much money on something and I wished I could get my money back. | | |
| | | 11. My home is good enough for my family's needs. | | |
| | | 12. I go to a pretty good school. | | |
| | | 13. I like my neighbourhood. | | |
| | | 14. My family is about the same as my friends' families. | | |
| | | 15. We get away on vacations often enough. | | |
| | | 16. If I ask my parents for something, I usually get it. | | |
| | | 17. I believe it is important to have a budget that I follow. | | |
| | | 18. I don't believe I waste food—I just have specific tastes. | | |
| | | 19. I believe it is important to eat leftovers. | | |
| | | 20. I believe it is important to recycle things. | | |
| | | 21. I believe it is important to conserve energy. | | |
| | | 22. I don't mind walking to get somewhere. | | |
| | | 23. I believe I shouldn't owe my parents or friends money. | | |
| | | 24. I have saved money for something in the future. | | |
| | | 25. We like to entertain and have guests to our home. | | |